ST KEVIN'S PARISH

VISION STATEMENT

St Kevin's Templestowe Parish is a Catholic community called by God and trusting in Jesus. We aspire to care for and connect with the wide world and to be hospitable and generous so that all may live life to the full.

Twenty Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year B

20th/21st October, 2018

Entrance Antiphon

To you I call;
for you will surely heed me, O God;
turn your ear to me; hear my words.
Guard me as the apple of your eye;
in the shadow of your wings
protect me.

Responsorial Psalm

Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all.
Alleluia!

Response to Prayers of the Faithful

Lord hear our prayer.

Communion Antiphon

Behold, the eyes of the Lord
are on those who fear him,
who hope in his merciful love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine.

FUNDRAISER FOR DROUGHT-STRICKEN FARMERS

This event was held last Saturday evening. A great result – everyone who attended thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Great food, fantastic company and of course a well-deserved cause. Congratulations and heartfelt thanks to our Social Justice Group for the initiative and hard work to bring to our attention the pain that the scourge of drought is causing to “Aussie Farmers”. Naturally enough, we city folk “just don’t get it” as a Glen Waverley resident said to me, “Our suburban schools don’t have to teach children to save water – we turn on a tap ...” A reminder – 4 Corners programme – Youtube - gives us a stunning picture. We will be sending through $3,275.50 to the Catholic Womens Association. Lynne Jordan (from CWA) thanks everyone for our kind donation and is delighted to let us know that they would be using this money to help drought-stricken families with their children’s expenses, bills and anything else that families might need help with. Please remember to look out for future fundraisers organised by our amazing Social Justice Group and support them. Fr Gerry

Twenty Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Anyone who reads the gospel of Mark thoughtfully will be struck by the paradox it presents. On the one hand we encounter Jesus as a figure of immense power: he rebukes demons, calms the sea, and teaches with astonishing authority. On the other he steadfastly renounces the use of power. He calls himself a servant and insists that his disciples make themselves slaves to all. We see in Jesus that being a servant does not mean being weak and ineffectual. That is something Jesus never was. He impressed people time and again with his authority, because he never sought power over others. Being so free, so centred, and so attuned to the power of love, he could put all his capacities at the service of others' well-being. Gustavo Gutierrez puts it this way: "Serving does not mean that we passively accept that things continue as they are. Serving implies initiative and creativity, knowledge and efforts, to build a human, just and loving world" (Sharing the Word through the Liturgical Year).

The Plenary Council and Us

Putting together the variety of comments/submissions from the last few months, our Parish will now pursue two objectives concurrently:

- i. Prepare a substantial, high quality submission to the Plenary Council, based on extensive consultation within the parish.
- ii. Work towards a joint statement with other parishes on key points, to be released publicly and jointly with the other parishes, at about the time of the submission of individual parish statements to the Plenary Council.

Contextual Themes

1. Emphasise the positive work of the Church, as the context to the required reforms.
2. Position our proposals as completing and extending the reform process begun at Vatican II.
3. Emphasise that enhancing the role of women in the Church must be a central theme of reform.

8 Possible Issues

1. Sexual Abuse

This still remains a key issue, even after the release of the Truth Justice and Healing Council reports, with the issues of the apology and regular implementation reports.

2. The nature of the Plenary Council

There are continuing concerns about the nature and operating mechanisms of the Plenary Council itself, particularly the concentration of both attendance and decision-making power in the bishops, and hence the unrepresentative nature of the meeting. This is holding back many parishes being bothered to even acknowledge the Plenary. We wish to propose that all present at the Plenary have equal rights to a deliberative and not merely consultative, vote.

3. An Open and Inclusive Church

These themes are the central themes of St Kevin's recent parish meetings and have been very well expressed by contributors to these meetings. There are many issues here and this should be an important part of any statement.

4. Governance in the Church

This covers the many issues connected with moving to a more consultative and decentralised Church, with strong involvement of the laity. It seems important to develop some specific proposals as to how an understanding of the Church as the assembly of the baptised can be reflected in better governance structures.

5. Rethinking and Reshaping Ministry

This is critical, including both how ministry is understood within the Church (hence the issue of clericalism concerned with the dominant role of the priest/bishop), the restrictions on persons who can serve as priests (married men and women) and the training of priests.

6. Priority of Social Justice Issues

The public life of Jesus was an example of "emptying Himself". The Church that is only inward looking "is not the Church of Jesus Christ". Let us acknowledge and rejoice in Caritas, Vinnies etc – while committing ourselves to justice education and action – eg family violence, homelessness.

7. Climate Change

Along the same lines as “6” – we shall call on the Church to be a leader within the Australian community and not at best a follower.

8. Liturgy

Issues that have been raised include the language used, the extent to which the liturgy reflects the life of the local community. The reform of the sacrament of Reconciliation, an informed discussion on the use of the sacrament for children and ongoing influence for adulthood. The resolution of the discussion of the theology of Confirmation ie what is it and who should administer the sacrament?

You are invited to discuss these and other issues that you may see as a priority on this

Wednesday, 24th October at 7.30pm in the Church Gathering Space

Who should attend?

All who are concerned about the future of the Catholic Church: including – you who have attended sessions so far, or responded to the survey monkey. And all parents who are interested in the faith education of children.

At this meeting, the process suggested is to:

- Determine the areas to be covered and other relevant matters
- Identify, for each topic area, one or more individuals to prepare draft material for review and subsequent incorporation into the submission. It is envisaged that each component draft would be limited to 300-400 words and would cover the following:
  - Description of the key issues to be addressed;
  - Review of the religious background to the issues and of their importance to the Church going forward;
  - Brief review of recent discussion in Australia and elsewhere; and
  - Suggested proposals to the Plenary Council, and the reasons for putting them.
- Request these drafts to be provided within 3-4 weeks, say by 22nd November, for discussion and review.
- Incorporate these drafts and other material into a first draft of the St Kevin’s submission to the Plenary Council.
- This first draft to be circulated prior to discussion at another parish meeting, perhaps on 5th December.
- Further steps towards the lodging of the submission in early 2019 to be made at the 5th December meeting.

Finally, remember as theologians remind us, the world will be watching Australia over the period of the Plenary Council.

Further – this coming Wednesday’s meeting will include you who were coming on Tuesday or Friday. Apologies if this inconveniences you. If you are unable to attend Wednesday and wish to have your rightful say, please write or email to the Parish.

Looking forward to a super evening on this coming Wednesday.

Fr Gerry

Saint Oscar Romero Quotes

- 1) "The ones who have a voice must speak for those who are voiceless".
- 2) "We are workers not master builders, ministers not messiahs. We are prophets of a future not our own".
- 3) "We cannot do everything and there is a sense of liberation in that. This enables us to do something, and to do it very well. It may be incomplete, but it is a beginning, a step along the way, an opportunity for the Lord's grace to enter and do the rest".

Inspirational Quotes From Christian Meditation Network

When we meditate we put aside all our thinking and we focus on being. Learning to say our mantra is the way to that state of being. We leave thinking behind because we only think about God the Creator, the Just One. In meditation we learn that God is 'pure being'. We experience that God is goodness made good, that God is all just. So we pay attention to the mantra. We are open to being with God. To meditate is to be in a state of one-ness with God, to be in complete harmony with God.
